In the G.O's 2nd to 5th read above, certain amendments/ clarifications have been issued to the G.O.1st read above.

2. In the G.O. 6th read above, AP Para Medical Para Medical Board, Rules 2006, were issued under Sub-Section-I of Section-44 of the AP Para Medical Board Act, 2006 (AP Act No.38 of 2006) prescribing the minimum educational qualifications to train the students by Para Medical Educational and Training Institutions.

3. In G.O. 7th read above, Rules relating to admission into Multi Purpose Health Workers (Male) training and grant of permission to private Multi Purpose Health Workers (Male) training Institutions were issued.

4. In G.O. 8th read above, certain amendments were issued to the Rules prescribed for Multi Purpose Health Workers (Male) training referred to in the GO 7th read above, with regard to name of the course, qualification for admission, fee structure, minimum age, staffing pattern, duration of the Course, etc.,

5. In the G.O. 9th read above, orders were issued for conversion of all certificate courses with one year duration as Diploma Courses with two year duration with effect from Academic Year 2012-2013.

6. In the letter 10th read above, the Secretary, Andhra Pradesh Para Medical Board has reported that during the meeting of A.P. Paramedical Board held on 7.2.2011, it was resolved to request the Government to issue necessary orders prescribing Intermediate (Bi.Pc) as entry qualification for admission to all Paramedical Courses and if sufficient number of candidates with Intermediate of Bi.P.C. group are not available, candidates with Intermediate of MPC Group and thereafter other groups may be given preference in that order.

7. The Government have carefully examined the circumstances reported by the Secretary, A.P. Para Medical Board in the context of increasing complexity of medical technology and the critical role of para-medical technicians in providing quality medical care. The Government has also considered the national and international best practices in this regard in the best interests of patient care. The Group of Ministers (GOM) on Scholarships has also considered the prevailing quality of para-medical education in the State and ordered that all para-medical courses shall be the Diploma study for two year and the minimum education qualification for admission to para-medical courses shall be pass in Intermediate (10+2) course with Science Group.

8. Accordingly, the Government hereby order that the educational qualification for admission to all para-medical courses in the State with effect from 2013-2014 Academic Year shall be a pass in Intermediate 10+2 with Biology, Physics and Chemistry (Bi.P.C). If adequate students of Bi.PC are not available, students with Intermediate with Maths, Physics and Chemistry (MPC) will be considered and if adequate students with MPC are also not available, students with Intermediate with other subjects can be considered.

9. The Secretary, A.P. Paramedical Board and the Commissioner of Health and Family Welfare shall take necessary action in the matter.

10. Accordingly, the following notification will be published in an extraordinary issue of the Andhra Pradesh Gazettee, dated 15-05-2013.
